

Morison KSi German firms meet in Frankfurt

On Friday 22 April, Morison KSi's German member firms met in Frankfurt for the first time since the Morison KSi merger was announced in February.

In attendance were:

Uwe Müller (Audit Tax & Consulting Services GmbH), Hannes Nebelung (Ehler Ermer & Partner), Karl-Heinz Wolf (Morison Frankfurt AG), Rainer Soboll and Peter Lahmann (Morison Riedlinger AG/RIEDLINGER Partnerschaftsgesellschaft mbB), Carsten Deecke and Lutz Lehmann-Bergholz (DIERKES PARTNER), Holger Fessler (Kanzlei Wangler GmbH), Alex Streidl (GKK PARTNERS), Markus Bernreuther (bmi auditax GmbH), Christian Clingen (WTG Wirtschaftstreuhand Dr. Grüber PartG mbB) and Liza Robbins (CEO, Morison KSi).

The meeting allowed former Morison International and KSi firms to get to know each other, learn about each other's firms and discuss what opportunities lie ahead since the formation of Morison KSi. The meeting also discussed other technical and current topics. Liza Robbins provided firms with an update on Morison KSi's strategy, forthcoming activities and member initiatives.

Morison KSi is proud of its strong and active representation in Germany, with 11 member firms spanning 21 offices all over the country and a combined fee income of USD75m. For more information on Morison KSi's German members please find their websites below:
